Banks Turn Down New City Budget; Key To Veto Sheet

Hope of Early Payment of Past-Due Salaries Fades; Mayor To Call Special Council Session for Thursday Afternoon.

FUND FOR SCHOOLS IS PRINCIPAL FLAW

Tacking on of $200,000 Appropriation Put Sheet Out of Balance, Bankers Decide at Meeting.

Hope of early payment of long-due salaries of the city's 4,000 employees faded Tuesday as Atlanta national banks declined to construe the January finance sheet passed Monday by council as a balanced budget on which they could extend credit to the municipality. Mayor James I. Key will veto the measure today.

John K. Ottley, president of the First National bank, informed Key's office that the budget was not acceptable to the banks, after a conference with administration leaders in which many phases of the sheet were minutely examined.

A detailed communication listing the objections is expected to be filed formally this morning with the mayor. Chief among the reasons for failing to recognize the fiscal measure will be the extra appropriation of about $200,000 for schools, it was indicated.

Key was not at his office Tuesday afternoon, but it was said he probably will call a special council meeting possibly for Thursday afternoon at which time he will ask for a new budget.

Wells to Return Thursday.
Councilman James L. Wells, chairman of the finance committee, will not be in the city today, but will return Thursday morning. He said he could have a meeting of the finance committee Thursday morning, if necessary.

Key announced that he would sanction the sheet when it was passed by council if banks construed that it re-established the city's credit and paved the way for early payment of back salaries of employees, but that he would veto it unless it met the sanction of financiers.

The city already owes more than $800,000 in past-due salaries and that amount will be advanced to more than $1,000,000 by February 15. Employees have received no pay since December 15. They are still working, however, expecting an adjustment of the fiscal tangle into which the city has fallen.

School Fund Is Flaw.
Reports of the school board to the bankers were that they would not attempt to tell the city how the budget should be balanced, and there was every belief that the three-day-month vacation without pay would have met with their approval if another $200,000 had not been tacked on to the budget for school operation. There also were several small items, including about $400 for the 122d infantry, Georgia national guard.

Members of the finance committee, headed by Councilman Wells, have insisted that a blanket 10 per cent cut be made in salaries of all employees. A conference committee of council offered the substitute budget.

WILLIAM CANDLER CRITICALLY HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Atlanta Capitalist Receives Severe Injuries to Skull; Brought Here by Special Train.

William Candler, president and treasurer of the Atlanta Biltmore hotel and one of the leading civic figures in the city's recent history, was in a critical condition at Piedmont hospital early Wednesday as the result of an automobile accident near Milan, Ga., at noon Tuesday.

Rushed to Atlanta by special train from Macon Tuesday night, the injured man was taken to the hospital, where an operation was immediately ordered by Dr. W. Floyd McRae, who went to Eastman earlier in the day to attend the injured capitalist.

Members of the Candler family, business associates and close friends of the injured man met the special train, which arrived at the Terminal station in a drizzle of rain at 11:00 o'clock, after a fast run from Macon. Dr. McRae had ordered the patient removed from the Wall clinic at Eastman shortly after 6 o'clock Tuesday night, and he was transferred to Macon by ambulance.

Frontal Sinus Crushed.
The exact extent of Mr. Candler's injuries had not been positively determined prior to the operation. Up to that time his condition had been variously reported as not serious, very serious and critical. Attending physicians in Atlanta, however, reported that Mr. Candler had received a slight fracture of the skull above the right eye. Dr. McRae, upon arrival in Atlanta from Eastman, said that he was inclined to the opinion that the worst head injuries consisted of a possible crushed frontal sinus.

Mr. Candler, who was on route to Jacksonville for a business conference, was alone at the time the accident occurred. He had spent Monday night in Macon and was driving on the Rhine-Milan highway when a stray dog walked into the path of his car. In an effort to avoid striking the animal he swerved his car sharply, causing it to skid into the ditch, where it overturned. The scene of the accident was about a mile from Milan and 18 miles from Eastman.

Passing Motorists. Mr. Candler from the wreckage of his automobile and rushed him to the nearest hospital, the clinic operated in Eastman by Dr. J. C. Wall. Dr. Wall resulted in the diagnosis of the patient's condition as consisting mainly of severe lacerations, including a deep cut which nearly severed the right ear. Later in the afternoon, however, Dr. Wall admitted that Mr. Candler had grown weaker and weaker in his opinion, the Atlanta capitalist had only "an even chance" of recovery.

Notified of the accident, Mr. Candler and the two Candler children, Rena and William Candler Jr., summoned Dr. McRae and Dr. Edgar Fincher Jr. and made emergency arrangements to go by plane to the bedside of the injured man. A special plane was made ready at the Beebe Blevins hangar at Candler field, but weather reports at that time were so formidable that it was decided to make the trip by motor. Al Belle Isle, close friend of Mr. Candler, drove the injured man's wife and children and the two doctors to Eastman.

Immediately upon his arrival in the south Georgia city, Dr. McRae, aided by Drs. Fincher and Wall, conducted another and more thorough examination of the patient.

Condition Critical

When his automobile skidded on a highway near Milan, Ga., and overturned, William Candler, Atlanta capitalist, was injured severely Tuesday. He was brought here late Tuesday night.

RULING BY NAPIER PERMITS SUTTON TO PAY OUT FUNDS

Decision Made on January 14 Made Public Tuesday by Veterinarian; Bitter Court Fight Seen.

Dr. J. M. Sutton, state veterinarian, is given the right to disburse "under the direction of the state auditor" the $75,000 allocation of the agricultural department's appropriation in a ruling handed down January 14 by Attorney General George M. Napier and made public by Sutton Tuesday. Earlier in the day the veterinarian's attorneys had served Talmadge with a restraining order preventing the commissioner from interfering with the work of Sutton's division pending a court hearing at McRae set for Saturday.

Napier's ruling said: "It seems that it will be the duty of the commissioner of agriculture to agree with the state veterinarian on a budget; that this budget should provide for the handling by the state veterinarian of the $75,000 allocated to that officer. No doubt the auditor will require you to make a bond before he sets up the account to you. I would suggest that you talk with the auditor before you take any other step."

The official ruling was issued before Talmadge rejected Sutton's January pay-roll sheets, called for the veterinarian's resignation and named Dr. W. E. White, of Tifton, to take charge of veterinary work. It was made public after State Auditor Tom Wisdom announced that the $75,000 had been set up to the credit of the department of agriculture and Governor Richard B. Russell Jr. had said he would honor no requisitions on it unless signed by Talmadge.

Ready for Fight.
Both sides girded for the court fight before Judge Eschel Graham, in Talmadge's superior court, with Talmadge's assertion that he would ask the attorney-general to defend his action. This defense, it was indicated, may include an attack on the reorganization bill. If this is the line of battle, Paul Lindsay, Sutton's attorney, who was the bitterest critic of the state reform bill last summer, will be in the role of defending the reorganization act—at least that part of it affecting Sutton.

In a statement incorporating the Napier opinion, Sutton said Tuesday: "Mr. Talmadge acts and talks as if the general assembly and the courts of Georgia were mere side shows when compared with his power and authority. Neither the law nor the attorney-general's opinion of the law seems to matter to him."

ROOSEVELT TAKES STEADFAST STAND AGAINST LEAGUE

Democratic Candidate Opposes Debt Cancellation, Urges World Conference To Level Tariff Bars.

BY WALTER T. BROWN.
ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 2.—(AP)—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, who in 1920 stumped the country for Woodrow Wilson's League of Nations, tonight declared he opposed American participation in the League.

"The League of Nations today is not the League conceived by Woodrow Wilson," said Mr. Roosevelt, a candidate for the democratic nomination for the presidency.

It might have been had the United States joined. Too often through the years its major function has been not the broad, overwhelming purpose of world peace, but rather a mere meeting place for the political discussion of strictly European political difficulties. In these the United States should have no part.

Roosevelt proclaimed against cancellation of European debts and said he favored an international trade conference to level tariff barriers. The governor blamed the Smoot-Hawley tariff act for trade walls erected by customer nations as a retaliatory measure.

Mr. Roosevelt outlined his views on the three important international questions at the meeting of the New York State Grange. His speech followed by a few days the challenge of William Randolph Hearst that the New York governor declare where he stood on the League of Nations. Mr. Baker, also an advocate of Wilson's League, that the League was not an issue in this year's presidential campaign. Mr. Baker is considered a possible democratic nominee.

The New York governor, during 1920, the democratic vice presidential candidate, carried the Wilson banner of League participation into every section of the United States. His present attitude, in light of his present position, has been widely noted by political friends and foes.

Referring to his advocacy of the League of Nations 12 years ago, Mr. Roosevelt said:

"In common with millions of my fellow countrymen, I worked and spoke in behalf of American participation in the League of Nations, conceived in the highest spirit of world friendship for the great object of preventing a return of the World War. But that course I have no apology.

"But the League," said Mr. Roosevelt, "has not developed through the years as long hoped for. Contemplated by its founder, nor have the principal members shown a disposition to divert the huge sums spent on armaments to the channels of legitimate trade, balanced budgets and payments of obligations. American participation in the League would mean the highest purpose of the prevention of war and a settlement of international difficulties in accordance with fundamental American ideas. Because of the facts, therefore, I do not favor American participation."

"What the world needs most today is a national policy which will make a League of Nations a reality. It is a League of national honor to other nations.

"The first lesson for all the world is recognition that a treaty is a national policy. It is not a mere piece of paper. It is a national policy that all national debts are debts of honor; that therefore no honorable nation may break a treaty, in spite of any more than they may break a treaty in letter; nor, when it is a debt, may repudiate or cancel a national debt of honor."

"Europe owes us. We do not owe her. Therefore, we should call a meeting of our debtors here and now in Europe and demand an understanding. If it were considered advisable in the present condition of world finance to postpone the payment of debts for a while, we should nevertheless insist upon an accord as to when payments should begin and in what amount."

"Europe has indulged herself in an orgy of spending and finds herself at the moment in a crippled financial position. She should cease to blame us for all the ills and troubles of the world. We have given her in time of need; the aid for which she was once grateful but which she has forgotten."

Turning to the tariff question, Mr. Roosevelt said the nations of Europe, South America and the far east were not buying American goods because of tariff barriers.

Tokyo Finds Unacceptable Peace Conditions Based On Kellogg-Briand Pact

Henderson Announces at Geneva Agreement of U. S. and England and France, Italy and Germany Concur in Step.

ARMS DELEGATIONS TOLD OF PROPOSAL

Optimistic Despite War Clouds, Leader Tells Meeting It Has Golden Opportunity.

BY P. I. LIPSEY JR.

GENEVA, Feb. 2.—(AP)—The great powers of Europe pledged themselves today to diplomatic co-operation with the United States in an effort to insure peace in the Far East by establishing a neutral zone between the Chinese and Japanese forces and by occupying that zone with their own troops.

This plan was announced to the council of the League of Nations by J. H. Thomas, secretary for dominions of Great Britain, who explained that the Washington authorities had collaborated with the MacDonald government in formulating it.

The French, Italian and German members of the council rallied to the proposal with prompt cordiality. Naotake Sato, Japan's delegate, contributed his part to the historic scene by assuring his colleagues Tokyo approved the scheme and would support it gladly.

Dr. W. W. Yen, China's representative, said he welcomed the proposal warmly as it offered a material basis of hope for getting Japanese soldiers off Chinese soil.

Three-Point Proposal.
Mr. Thomas told the council that the American and British governments have submitted to Tokyo and Nanking the following formal request:

The plan contains five points, as follows:

- 1.—Cessation of all acts of violence by both sides forthwith and preparation whatever for further hostilities between the two nations.
- 2.—Withdrawal of all Japanese and Chinese combatants from all points of mutual contact on the Shanghai area.
- 3.—Protection of the International Settlement by the establishment of neutral zones to divide the combatants; these zones to be policed by neutrals; the arrangements to be set up by the Chinese authorities.
- 4.—Upon acceptance of these conditions prompt advances to be made in negotiations to settle all outstanding controversies between the two nations in the spirit of the pact of Paris and the resolution of the League of Nations of December 9, (proposing an evacuation of Nanking) without prior demand or reservation and with the aid of neutral observers or participants.
- 5.—More impressive was the declaration with which the British cabinet minister began his remarks. He said:

"It is impossible that the present position in the Far East should be allowed to continue."

CAPITAL'S HOPES FOR PEACE REST ON LATEST MOVE

Washington Encouraged by First Reception of Proposal To Halt Fighting in China.

BY CHARLES STEPHENSON SMITH.

(Copyright, 1932, by the Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—(AP)—As the American government awaited anxiously the result of its strongest bid for an end of hostilities in China, the navy department received word tonight that 36 of its citizens were being evacuated from Nanking.

Reports of the evacuation came from Lieutenant Commander P. W. Rutledge, in charge of the American destroyer Sims, at Nanking, after the United States and proposed, in effect, that Japan and China stop fighting and discuss the merits of their cases at Geneva.

Rutledge informed the navy department that the American citizens would leave the Chinese city, which has been under fire from Japanese guns, Wednesday morning (Nanking time) on a merchant vessel.

The American commander said the city was quiet and there had been no resumption of firing.

America's proposal to Japan and China was made in the belief that peace would be made, rather than force, can best moderate the warlike temper of the belligerents. The proposal, presented at Tokyo and Nanking with the backing of Great Britain, France and Italy, contained no note of protest. It carried no slightest threat of war to preserve peace.

The first reports of its reception were encouraging, but the situation remained admittedly grave and dangerous. A sudden turn of the hostilities, particularly in Shanghai, might endanger many American lives. The alignment did not come upon the premier without warning. He had suffered intermittent headaches for a long period.

Thus it will not be possible for the cabinet leader to go to Geneva, where international problems of great moment are under discussion. He had planned to go to Switzerland this week-end and hopes to go through with that project as he recovers from the effects of the operation.

MacDonald to Undergo Operation in Left Eye
LONDON, Feb. 2.—(AP)—Great Britain temporarily will lose the services of her pilot tomorrow in the midst of a world crisis.

Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald will undergo a delicate eye operation for glaucoma immediately after the Wednesday cabinet meeting. His physicians described his ailment as a "slight and progressive diminution of the vision of his left eye."

The ailment did not come upon the premier without warning. He had suffered intermittent headaches for a long period.

Japan Will Not Submit Manchurian Difficulty to Outside Arbitration; Agrees to Part of Plan Applying to Shanghai.

ATTACK REOPENS BY LAND AND SEA

Bombardment Covers Landing of More Troops; American Cruiser Arrives; British Land Men.

TOKYO, Feb. 3.—(Wednesday.)—(AP)—A foreign office spokesman indicated today that the fifth proposal in the Anglo-American peace plan was "absolutely unacceptable." He said Japan would accept the first four conditioned on the right of Japan to protect its nationals.

Japan offered no counter proposals to the Anglo-American plan.

By the Associated Press.

A formal program to bring peace to Shanghai, submitted by the United States, Great Britain, France and Italy, was declared to be partially unacceptable by an official Japanese spokesman today.

The joint proposals were published during a lull in hostilities, followed by a new artillery duel between Japanese and Chinese forces.

Japanese forces opened an attack on Shanghai by land and by sea today. Six Japanese destroyers bombarded Chinese forts to cover the disembarkation of a landing force.

Martial law declared at Nanking at 10 a. m. today. Japanese and Chinese warships moved eight miles apart and British and American vessels moved in between them.

Japanese warships in the Whangpoo river, meanwhile, were reported to have shelled Chinese troop reinforcements as they advanced toward Shanghai from Woosung and to have landed approximately a full division of Japanese soldiers.

Eight hundred British troops were landed for the protection of the International Settlement and 900 United States Marines were due to arrive tomorrow, a few hours on the cruiser Houston.

A major battle between the Japanese and Chinese was believed imminent.

First intimations of the four-point move for peace came from a declaration by J. T. Luomas, of Great Britain, as they advanced toward Shanghai from Woosung and to have landed approximately a full division of Japanese soldiers.

At a special meeting of the council, which delayed the opening of the international disarmament conference, Mr. Thomas declared that war "in everything but name" was in progress and that immediate steps must be taken to stop it.

The Japanese reinforcements were moved into place in Shanghai after a long artillery duel in which Japanese 18-pound guns rained shells on Chapel and the Chinese retaliated.

Strong points, protected by barbed wire and sandbags and armed with machine guns, were set up by the Japanese in the city. The expected Chinese offensive, Japanese officers declared the attack would come within 48 hours.

Thirty-six Americans are ready to evacuate Nanking, the navy department at Washington was advised.

A Tass (Russian) News Agency dispatch from Peking said soviet officials of the Chinese Eastern railway had been asked to permit the transportation of Japanese troops from Tientsin to Harbin, but had replied that the Chinese officials of the line would have to give their consent first.

Nanking, bombarded by Japanese warships Monday night and Tuesday morning, saw no more hostilities, but thousands of Chinese residents fearful that they might encounter another dose of shellfire, streamed out of the city, seeking places of safety.

The Chinese defense line was withdrawn from the Nanking waterfront to avoid clashes.

The Italian government announced in Rome it was sending a cruiser and a destroyer to co-operate with other forces.

Odd Jobs for Jobless Plan Favored by Raymond Kline

Indorsement of the Rochester plan which in brief provided employment to the jobless by means of odd jobs about the home or in one's place of business was given on Tuesday by Raymond A. Kline, vice president and general manager of the Davison-Paxon Company. He favored a general survey of the city to be made by jobless people to learn just what work of this type is available.

The Nation's Business recently carried an article showing how this idea had been successfully applied in Rochester, N. Y., where 1,500 workers were given on 11,000 firms and individuals to spend $6,000,000 on various improvements.

Pointing out that this plan would not only aid the unemployed, but would result in a saving to individuals having certain work done, he said:

"In every home there is some little odd job—a screen or a lock that needs adjusting, or plumbing that is out of gear. There are lots of unemployed members of the Federation of Trades who under proper direction could make a house-to-house canvass, finding out just what jobs needed attention.

"Costs are low now, and householders could save money at the same time they are helping a worthy cause. This plan doesn't involve charity, yet it is the simplest way I know to help these people."

BILL WOULD BAR ARMY FROM 'WET' STATES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—(AP)—Legislation to prohibit naval or military tactical maneuvers in states that do not have "an adequate code of laws for concurrent enforcement" of the eighteenth amendment was introduced today by Senator Jones, republican, Washington.

Jones, a prohibitionist, said the measure would not affect the military and naval academies at West Point and Annapolis or the coast guard academy at New London, Conn.

The bill said soldiers and sailors are subjected to "undue temptation" and "circumstances tending to develop an attitude of disrespect" for the constitution by being stationed in states where adequate state law enforcement codes are not in force.

Mrs. Davis will be sentenced this morning by Judge Thomas, who, at the same time, will pass sentence on Miss Lucille Gann, who pleaded guilty Tuesday morning to perjury and false swearing in connection with the Lichtenstein murder case.

The alleged false statements of Mrs. Gann were said to have been made in connection with an attempt to pin the Lichtenstein slaying on J. T. Dailey, a state witness against J. D.

CREEKMORE EXPLAINS 'HOLD' COTTON SALES

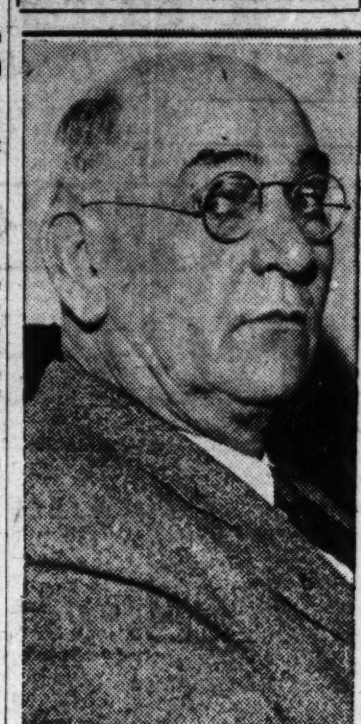

Withdrawal From Market Would Benefit Non-Members, He States.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 2.—(UP)—Cotton delivered by farmers to the American Cotton Co-operative Association is being sold at current-price levels because it has been demonstrated that holding operations benefit the non-members at the expense of the members, E. F. Creekmore, vice president and general manager of the association, said here tonight.

Creekmore spoke before the annual New Orleans meeting of the American Institute of Banking. He said the reason for the policy of selling cotton at current levels was to "eliminate speculation" as well as to "continue sustaining the market during the harvesting season at the expense of the member."

"If we return to the members an average of more than $5 a bale above the amount advanced we shall feel that our operations this year will be successful," he said. At this time, he added, "it looks like we shall have a successful season."

CITY STORES COMPANY RECEIVERSHIP ASKED

Suit, Filed in New York, Says Board of Directors Dominated.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—(AP)—A suit asking the appointment of receivers was filed today by Henry S. Unterweiser against the City Stores Company, a holding corporation for a group of department stores in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and throughout the south.

Also named as defendants are Rudolph J. Goerke, former president of the Bankers' Securities Company; Halsey, Stuart and Company; Albert M. Greenfield; Ernest W. Niver, Saul Cohn and Paul H. Saunders.

Unterweiser, who said he was acting for a group of stockholders, asks that the directors be ordered to file an accounting of the assets and their expenditures and that they be perpetually restrained from acting as directors and transferring or disposing of any assets.

The charges included: That Goerke dominated the board of directors because he controlled a majority of the stock and that he placed incompetent members of his family in management of subsidiary companies at excessive salaries.

That the Bankers Securities Company and Halsey, Stuart and Company, "by illegal means and by threats of arrest," made Goerke cause him "and others controlled by him" to resign as officers.

And that six of the seven stores in the group sustained losses during the nine months ending September 30, 1931.

The plaintiff said the seventh, Maison Blanche and Company of New Orleans, made a profit of $122,470. He lists the losses as follows:

Lit Brothers, Philadelphia, $57,026; Goerke Company, Newark, N. J., $179,115; Goerke-Kinch Company, Elizabeth, N. J., $15,406; Kaufman-Strauss and Company, Louisville, Ky., $46,885; B. Lowenstein and Brothers, Memphis, $192,270; Lowenstein-Joseph and Loeb, Birmingham, $6,368.

HONOR COMMITTEE REFUSES TO SERVE AT ALABAMA U.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Feb. 2.—(AP)—The honor committee of the University of Alabama has refused to function further following failure of the executive committee of the board of trustees to approve its recommendation that a co-ed be expelled for violating the honor code.

In a letter to Dr. George Denny, president of the university, which called his attention to the executive committee's action in expelling the girl, the honor committee said in part:

"We feel that if the honor committee, following its usual procedure, could not stand on its decision in this case, there must be something wrong with our method of procedure, hence we are unable to see how we can proceed further in trying to advance our honor system until we have been able to work out some changes in our system of operation."

WOODCOCK SCORES APPEAL FOR BEER

Dry Enforcement Chief and Educator Urge Defeat of Bingham Measure.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—(P)—Opposition to a bill to legalize a per cent beer was expressed before a senate committee today by Amos W. W. Woodcock, director of prohibition enforcement, and Dr. Joy Elmer Morgan, editor of the Journal of the National Education Association.

Citing figures for pre-prohibition years, Woodcock said the availability of beer in the past "did not decrease consumption of hard spirits" and could not be expected to make the task of enforcement easier.

He added "any place where 3 or 4 per cent beer was sold on draught would be a guise for selling hard liquor there also."

Even under the Bingham bill, which provides for distribution of beer from warehouses to the home and to hotels and restaurants, he said, "you might have a thing called a restaurant that might become a saloon."

Dr. Morgan said that from the standpoint of the educator conditions have improved greatly under prohibition.

"Excepting only the founding of the Christian church and the establishment of the common school," he said, "the eighteenth amendment is the greatest child welfare measure of all history," he continued.

"It is the observation of our school people that conditions of health and home life have greatly improved during the past ten years. Children who formerly came to school without shoes or overcoats are now provided for in spite of the difficulties of the depression."

"Were 4 per cent beer legalized, we might reasonably expect a steady increase in the number of serious automobile accidents which would affect the schools profoundly. More children

Florida Gets Check From U. S. for 4 Cents

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Feb. 2.—(P)—Florida today received from the federal government its share of revenue from licenses charged under the federal water power act. State Treasurer W. V. Knott took the check from the treasurer of the United States to Attorney-General Cary D. Landis, and asked into which state fund the money should be placed. The attorney-general studied state statutes and then decided there was no provision made for special use of the money.

So he told the treasurer to place the four cents in the general treasury.

of elementary school age are killed today by automobile accidents than by all other causes combined."

Prohibition Director Woodcock said enforcement is increasing in efficiency and will "drive the traffic to cover" so that only the confirmed drinker will obtain liquor.

Continued pressure on commercial violators, he said, will make liquor so hard to procure that "the fellow who has no special interest one way or the other will not get it."

"The fellow who wants to find it will probably get it, just as he gets narcotics, vice and gambling," he said.

UNWRITTEN LAW FREES HUSBAND IN SLAYING

GREENSBORO, N. C., Feb. 2.—(P)—Terry H. Harper, 44-year-old traveling salesman, was acquitted tonight of the murder of Charles O. Holton, with whom Mrs. Harper admitted she had an affair.

When the verdict was announced by the superior court jury after three hours of deliberation, Harper fainted. Mrs. Harper was indicted and placed on trial with her husband, but she was freed by a directed verdict.

BANKS HALT EXPORTS OF GOLD FOR HOARDING

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—(P)—New York commercial banks today moved to end the shipment of gold abroad for hoarding, in a "gentleman's agreement" under which no such exports will be made where it is understood the metal will not be used in useful commercial transactions.

The federal reserve bank is not a party to the agreement and will ship gold to all persons asking for it. A survey of the gold in American vaults today indicates that there is at the present time more than $1,000,000,000 in gold coins on hand, which is an ample supply for all demands that might be made.

The action by the commercial banks was taken because of the recent development of system whereby foreign importers of gold were reselling the metal at a higher rate to European hoarders.

Gold shipments have been going to Europe at an average rate of $5,000,000 a month since last October. Three months ago some banks acted individually and put the ban on further exports.

The federal reserve bank today estimated that the net loss in gold for January was approximately $45,000,000. The bulk of exports went to France and Belgium, but this was partially offset by receipt of shipments from Argentina, India, and Japan.

Representatives of labor and industry have been invited to sit in and offer suggestions in framing a course of action, Plummer said today. He announced a regional commission with headquarters here will be appointed to direct activities in the southeastern area.

DR. BYRD ELECTED GRADY STAFF HEAD

Veteran Member Succeeds Dr. Upchurch; Row With Internes Settled.

Dr. Edwin S. Byrd, veteran member of the Grady hospital staff, Tuesday night was elected president of the white unit staff, succeeding Dr. W. A. Upchurch.

Other new officers include Dr. H. S. Patton, vice president; Dr. Trimble Johnson, secretary-treasurer, and Dr. Frank Eskridge, liaison officer.

Samuel C. Dobbs, chairman of the Grady hospital board of trustees, addressed the staff, visualizing a $2,000,000 plant in the future for all of Grady as the greatest medical educational center in the south.

At the request of Mr. Dobbs, members of the white staff voted to give such medical books and papers as they do not need to a library for internes of the hospital as well as the contribution to buy additional books for the library, which has been established in a corner of the basement of the colored unit. It is expected that the staff of the colored unit will take similar action.

Mr. Dobbs pointed out that Grady is an educational as well as charitable institution; that the internes are in the hospital for medical education, and that their incomes do not permit them to buy books and periodicals.

Mr. Dobbs announced, following the white unit staff meeting, that differences between the internes and hospital authorities have been amicably settled, and that a letter written by the internes to the American Medical Association complaining of the food and certain rules has been withdrawn by the internes, bringing the matter to an end.

U. S. DEBT INCREASES OVER BILLION IN YEAR

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—(P)—An increase of $1,652,592,880 in the gross public debt during the 12 months ending January 31, 1932, was shown today in the monthly statement of the treasury.

The total debt is now $17,815,801,111.

Since January 31 the treasury has issued an additional $372,000,000 of Treasury certificates which were used to raise funds for the Reconstruction Credit Corporation and retire $51,000,000 in maturing treasury bills.

Large decreases in the government's revenue from taxes were the chief causes of the increase in the public debt.

In addition to dropping away of revenue the treasury was called upon to raise money to finance the national loans under the World War service certificate fund and additional money to carry on the government's huge building operations and other relief work.

NEW U. S. BEAUTY
IS PERFECT 34
WITH BLONDE HAIR

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—(P)—This year's American beauty is Mabel Ellis, a perfect 34 and a blonde with blue eyes.

She was selected from a bouquet of 500 beauties by the American Beauty Congress tonight, after a committee of pulpitude experts had first picked 15 outstanding types.

Miss Ellis, an orphan, came to New York from Birmingham, Ala., three years ago. She is five feet and one half an inch tall, weighs 118 pounds and measures 34 inches around the bust and hips, and 28 inches around the waist. She is feminine, but athletic and languidly alert.

Ten of the 15 who competed in the finale tonight were blondes, one was a red head, one had gray hair, one was a brunette and two had brown hair. Blue eyes predominated.

Among the others who competed in the finals was:

Juanita Felder, daughter of Eugene Felder, Cordele, Ga., 16, brown hair and eyes, weighs 108 and is five feet three inches tall.

Three Police Continue To Guard Edison Grave

WEST ORANGE, N. J., Feb. 2.—(P)—Beside the grave of the late Thomas A. Edison a guard stands constantly day and night. Though the inventor died more than three months ago, the three policemen assigned to the task work in eight-hour shifts, ostensibly as a guard of honor but charged with the duty of preventing desecration of the grave by curiosity seekers who visit it in great numbers. The policemen are paid $6 each a day by Thomas A. Edison, Inc.

COMMITTEE APPROVES CONSOLIDATION PLAN

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—The senate finance committee today gave its approval to the joint resolution of Senator Walter F. George, of Georgia, conferring upon the president authority to effect economies in the cost of government by consolidating, transferring or abolishing any board, bureau or office in the executive branch not under the jurisdiction of any executive department.

Senator George, himself a member of the committee, later presented the report to the senate.

By an amendment made in committee the order of the president abolishing any executive department or agency and transferring its functions to any other department or eliminating them entirely becomes final unless congress shall disapprove of his action within 60 days.

The senator explained that the purpose of the resolution is to effect real economy in government. If any progress is made in that direction, he stated, it must commence by the consolidation of the numerous overlapping bureaus, agencies and commissions which have grown up in Washington, and by the abolition of such agencies which have become useless.

Senator George pointed out that the comparatively small economy which may result by a temporary reduction in federal salaries dwindles into insignificance when compared to the greater economy that will result from a vigorous use of the power which the resolution seeks to confer upon the president of the United States.

Soviet Hikes Price Of Food, Clothing

MOSCOW, Feb. 2.—(P)—Prices of food and clothing, as well as other manufactured articles, have risen 20 per cent to 100 per cent in Moscow by government order today, making butter $1.14 a pound and shoes $50 a pair.

The increase in food prices averaged 20 to 25 per cent and that for clothing from 25 to 100 per cent. The rise applied to goods in the co-operative stores as well as the "open" or higher-priced stores where anyone is permitted to buy.

The increase, which was unannounced and which followed an average reduction of 30 per cent in "open" store prices less than three months ago, raised the price of butter from $2.10 for 2-1/2 pounds to $2.50, white bread from 12-1/2 cents to 15 cents for the same weight and shoes from $25 to $50.

State Bankers To Aid
Mississippi's Credit

JACKSON, Miss., Feb. 2.—(P)—Mississippi's faith and credit, facing a strain in $2,730,537 in obligations maturing March 1 will be preserved for at least five months by the action of state bankers who here today assured Governor Sennett C. Connor that they would take 90-day extensions on $1,000,000 in short-term notes due on that date.

The extensions were accepted by the bankers following all-day conferences here.

The impounding of estimated receipts and cash on hand will enable the state to meet the remaining $1,730,537 on March 1; and estimated receipts for the next four months, likewise, will give the state a treasury more than enough to meet both the $1,000,000 carried over for 90 days, the interest on it at 6 per cent, and the April, May, June and July maturities amounting to $944,499.72.

Schedules furnished the legislature showed that if the holders of the $1,000,000 in short-term notes took the 90-day extensions, all faith and credit maturities through July 1 could be met, and there would be a balance of $786,463.17.

ROSE ALLEN REBUKED FOR TRIAL INTERVIEW

Ten Men, Two Women Are Named as Jurors in Slay-ing Case.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Feb. 2.—(P)—Rose Allen's open confession of continued love for her dead sweetheart, Francis A. Donaldson, III, was rebuked today by the court as attorneys completed the jury which is trying her brother, Edward, for murder.

"I love 'Skinny' as much today as I ever did," she had said in a statement yesterday.

Whether Rose Allen intends to heed the warning of the court, is not known, but she remained in seclusion today.

The jury was completed at the afternoon session and is composed of 10 men and two women. Nearly 80 veniremen were examined and most of them were rejected because they said they opposed capital punishment.

The commonwealth told the jury it would submit evidence to show that Donaldson was wilfully murdered and that the evidence would justify a verdict of murder in the first degree with life imprisonment or death as the penalty.

David E. Groshens, assistant district attorney, did not specifically ask for death, but said it would be for the jury to decide the penalty.

Dangerous complications can follow the neglect of "a common cold." Every case of tonsillitis began with "just a sore throat." It's a wise plan to take aspirin after any undue exposure to bad weather, or whenever there is any chance that you've caught cold. If it's genuine aspirin it can't possibly hurt you; and how it does banish the aches and pains caused by colds, neuralgia, neuritis, lumbago, and even rheumatism.

Bayer Aspirin will insure your comfort through the worst cold season. The more susceptible you are to colds, the more you need it. Does not depress the heart.

Barney Barnes Can Now Eat Anything He Chooses

"I got so I couldn't eat anything without having trouble afterwards," says Mr. Barnes, popular oil rig builder, of 221 1/2 West Grand Avenue, Oklahoma City, Okla. "I would have heartburn and indigestion pains after meals."

"Nothing seemed to help me. I tried everything I could hear of but my indigestion hung on for years. Then a friend got me to take some Pape's Diapiesin. I had almost immediate relief with the first two tablets. Now that I have been taking them for some time, I find I can eat meats or most anything and have no trouble. I want to tell others about Diapiesin because it sure helped me."

Thousands like Mr. Barnes are finding quick, certain relief for sour stomach, or acidity, by using Pape's Diapiesin. Chew a tablet and that feeling of weight and discomfort after eating just disappears.

Savannah Opens "War" On "Suspicious Persons"

SAVANNAH, Ga., Feb. 2.—(AP)—Mayor Thomas M. Haynes has announced he has directed the police department to round up suspicious characters, and to increase the force if it is necessary to carry out the program.

It is the purpose of the mayor to clear the city of suspicious characters who drift in from other places, and who might prey on citizens and their property.

An epidemic of house and store burglaries and street holdups caused the mayor to take the action.

CHATHAM DEMOCRATS MAP CAMPAIGN PLANS

SAVANNAH, Ga., Feb. 2.—(AP)—The 1932 presidential campaign in Chatham county and the first congressional district got under full headway Tuesday when prominent democrats held a meeting, elected Judge A. B. Lovett to head the campaign in the district outside of Chatham county and gave the county executive committee power to conduct the campaign.

Important phases of the coming election were discussed in the law offices of Lawton & Cunningham. The group seemed unanimous in the belief "that this is a democratic year."

Pleasant A. Stovall, editor of the Savannah Evening Press, was elected treasurer. Charles Bouch Edwards was elected assistant treasurer and secretary. David S. Atkinson, chairman of the county executive committee, presided.

Both urged liberal contributions for all loyal democrats to finance the campaign. Mr. Stovall gave a brief report of the victory in the Atlanta last month and told of the enthusiasm within the party.

Chatham county has been assigned the task of raising $4,000 for the campaign. Democratic victory in the national election was predicted by Miss Stella Akin, secretary of the state democratic executive committee.

Although an ardent supporter of Franklin D. Roosevelt, she refrained from injecting personalities into her talk.

Mr. Atkinson will be at the head of the campaign in Chatham county and will co-operate with Judge Lovett in the district campaign.

The speakers did not discuss individual candidates for the nomination, each stressing that with the great opportunity of electing a democrat this year there should be a harmonious united party.

Mr. Dunson has been in poor health for several months but his condition was not regarded as serious.

He returned from a business trip to Atlanta late Monday evening and complained of not feeling well, but was not taken critically ill until a few minutes before his death, which was believed to have been caused by a heart attack brought on by indigestion.

DR. KOO ADDRESSES GEORGIA STUDENTS

ATHENS, Ga., Feb. 2.—(AP)—Japanese aggression in Manchuria is for the purpose to either gain ultimate control or, if that fails, to destroy Chinese interests as far as possible, according to Dr. T. Z. Koo, Chinese statesman and Young People's worker, in an address in the University of Georgia chapel Tuesday.

An assembly of students, faculty members and others who filled every available seat stood in the aisles heard the youthful Chinese leader talk of the "Manchuria and World Peace." He was greeted with vigorous applause.

Dr. Koo outlined four major reasons for the conflicts between the Japanese and the Chinese: (1) the League of Nations was perhaps the only means to bring about a satisfactory and lasting settlement. (2) If the League fails, where will we be? he said.

C. OF C. AT MOULTRIE LAUDED BY VEREEN

Colquitt County's Success Termed Result of Co-ordination of Efforts.

MOULTRIE, Ga., Feb. 2.—(AP)—Co-ordination of the efforts of bankers, businessmen and farmers was described Tuesday night by W. C. Vereen as the combination which made Moultrie and Colquitt county outstanding as a successful farming community.

Speaking to the 23rd annual meeting of the Moultrie Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Vereen, banker and civic leader and member of the state highway board, praised the chamber for its "enviable record of achievement."

"This record is unparalleled, in my opinion," he said. "And what a line!"

"We have had no outstanding stars! Our farmers and manufacturers have constituted the line. And what a line! Our merchants, bankers and professional men, the backfield. And what a backfield! Optimists have called the signal and we have marched on to victory."

Overcome Every Obstacle.
"We have met and overcome every obstacle! The first team we defeated was the 'bull weevil' from Mexico, when we built the first meat packing plant in the southeast in 1914, and the second was the 'hog cholera' which we have changed several times."

We defeated them the first time with the 'packing-house' squad. The second time with our 'hog cholera' squad. We crushed them with our premier team, 'diversification.'

"Our team has also met and defeated the 'depression' team many times and in the series now being played we have won all points so far and continued teamwork means that we will sweep the series."

He urged that the Moultrie "team" keep in training and not permit past successes to "turn our heads and cause us to let up on each individual effort."

The fact that the depression has been felt less in this community by reason of our past constructive efforts is liable to cause us to let up on our efforts, to rest on our oars, so let me urge you to continue to support the chamber of commerce, your proven community-building maintenance organization, and to continue your individual efforts.

"Overconfidence has defeated many a superior football team, and so, my friends, overconfidence is the one thing we must fight in our work now."

"In community development as in the development of the individual, there is no stopping point. You cannot stand still. You must go forward or backward. Progress comes only by pushing forward. With continued teamwork," he said, "the record will be one of 'still greater achievement' at the next annual meeting one year hence."

Mr. Vereen quoted Professor James Boye, of Cornell University, as saying: "Moultrie and Colquitt county, Georgia, are an outstanding example of industrial co-operation."

The chamber of commerce is sponsoring a farm program has been carried out, with the direct co-operation of the farmers and businessmen. This is far better than any plan for government farm relief, because these men are right there on the ground! They know more about the problem than the government would; they have a more direct financial and civic interest in the problem than the government, and they waste less money and get bigger results."

The men are W. S. Elliott, Grady St. Clair and J. L. and W. C. Carr. Marshall L. G. English, of Montrose, identified St. Clair as one of three unmasked bandits who attacked him on the night of December 21, bound him and left him in the swamps near Montrose. He said one of the men was left to guard him, while the others fled and opened the bank vault with acetylene torches.

2 SERIOUSLY BURNED AFTER CAR OVERTURNS

Floridians Trapped Under Machine on Road Near Hawkinsville.

MACON, Ga., Feb. 2.—(AP)—Trapped under an overturned automobile six miles south of Hawkinsville Tuesday afternoon, two men were burned and one of them probably will die.

Leo Balder, 35, Lakeland, Fla., was pinned under the steering column, and his clothes were burned from his body. His whole body was burned.

Frank Carmello, 42, also of Lakeland, was burned about the neck, right arm and chest.

The two men left Lakeland a week ago Monday to visit friends in Shepardsville, Ky. Carmello, who is a widower, left his 7-year-old daughter at home, where he runs a little truck garden.

Tuesday they were going home and their small coupe had passed Hawkinsville. They had gone about six miles on the dirt road when the car, which was driving, struck a slick place in the road and turned completely around, stopping upside down over a low embankment.

Flames broke out, and began to scorch the cramped space in which the men were caught. They tried to crawl out, but the doors would not move. The heat increased and the flames crept beside the trapped men.

Balder's shirt and trousers were burned off. His leather puttees protected his legs below the knees, but the rest of his clothing, except a sleeve, was away. He screamed in agony and Carmello beat on the glass windows while his arms burned.

Finally he broke the window, crawled out and dragged Balder from the car. Passers-by saw their plight and called an ambulance from Hawkinsville. The two men were taken to a Macon hospital. Another car collided with the ambulance, but little damage was done, and the injured men were taken to the hospital and admitted for treatment.

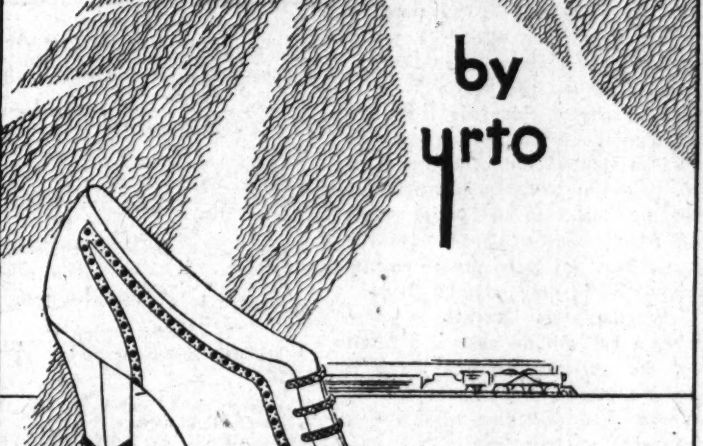

MORRIS LEFT SCORES 'BIG NAVY' MEASURE

ATHENS, Ga., Feb. 2.—(AP)—Professor John Morris, president of the Georgia Peace Society, reiterated opposition to a larger navy in a statement given to the Athens Banner-Herald Tuesday.

The comment followed a move by Senator Hale, of Maine, in congress to revive the "big navy bill" originally sponsored by Representative Vinson, of Georgia.

Professor Morris charged Senator Hale "was listed as being in the service of the 'big navy interests.' He comes from a state whose principal industry is lumber used extensively in building ships."

RUTH JUDD INSANE, PSYCHIATRISTS AVER

Defense Rests Case After Testimony of Two Mental Experts.

COURTHOUSE, PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 2.—(P)—Completing the insanity testimony by which they hope to save Winnie Ruth Judd from the noose, defense counsel rested their case today on testimony of two California psychiatrists.

"Glacial insufficiency," they said, had robbed Mrs. Judd of ability to distinguish right from wrong last October 18 when Agnes Anne LeRoy and Hedvig Samuelson were slain. Dr. Clifford Wright and Dr. Edward Huntington Williams, members of the Los Angeles county lunacy commission, concurred in testimony Mrs. Judd is insane and was insane on the day of the death of her two friends, whose mutilated bodies were shipped in trunks to Los Angeles.

Hereditary insanity has been testified to previously by her father, mother and others.

The state opened its rebuttal with testimony offered in an effort to prove Mrs. Judd was jealous of Mrs. LeRoy and Miss Samuelson.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Atlanta's Roosevelt Song May Be Adopted Nationally

Thomas Altobelli holding copy of "Forward Franklin D. Roosevelt March," of which he is the composer, autographed by Governor Roosevelt. Mr. Altobelli is leader of the Atlanta Fireman's band and is one of the better known band masters in the country. If Governor Roosevelt is nominated by the democrats for the presidency, the song may become the party war march.

A song which may be the democratic march of war has been written by an Atlanta man, Thomas Altobelli, leader of the fire department band of 36 pieces. "Forward, Franklin D. Roosevelt March" is the title and the stirring music and appealing words have already found approval from several band masters in the country. Upon hearing of the song, the Tenth Infantry band, of Albany, N. Y., home of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, played it at a meeting held in honor of Mr. Roosevelt last week. When Mr. Roosevelt visited Georgia last he heard the score played and approved of it. Mr. Altobelli has been a resident of Georgia for 25 years and has organized many of the bands in the state.

JURY PROBING WRIT FILED BY SAUNDERS

Investigation by the Fulton county grand jury of the filing of a habeas corpus petition in federal court by ex-Councilman W. E. (Butch) Saunders, who is serving 24 months at the River camp for bribery, was started Tuesday. Reports at the courthouse were that the grand jury will meet at 10:30 o'clock this morning to probe the matter further. F. L. Breen, attorney and notary public, whose name appears on the Saunders petition as a witness to Saunders' signature on the "verification" clause of the petition, was questioned Tuesday by the grand jury, it was said. It was understood that Breen was asked whether or not Saunders was sworn when he signed the petition, and that Breen told the grand jury he did not recall.

The original writ of habeas corpus petition filed by Saunders in federal district court was obtained Tuesday by Assistant Solicitor-General J. Walter LeCraw on an order by Federal Judge E. Marvin Underwood, who allowed him custody of the original document for 24 hours, it was stated in the office of the clerk of the court. Assistant District Attorney Hal Lindsay, who aided Mr. LeCraw in obtaining the writ of habeas corpus, stated Tuesday night that he would not divulge what was the Saunders paper or not. LeCraw Tuesday night denied that he is working on the Saunders habeas corpus case. "General John LeCraw, who is working on the Saunders habeas corpus case, was slain by one of the negroes, shortly before 8:30 o'clock this morning. The president's statement arranged not only for celebration of Washington's birthday in this country, but also around the world. CYR-KING SITUATION REMAINS UNCHANGED

LAKE CHARLES, La., Feb. 2.—(P)—The Cyr-King controversy over Louisiana's governorship remained in status quo today with the next move up to Alvin O. King, who has ten days in which to file answer to the local district court to the suit brought by Paul N. Cyr to oust him from the governor's office. So far King has ignored Cyr's suit, saying he was too busy trying to find means to succor the flood sufferers in north Louisiana where he is on an inspection tour. MIKE CHAMBERS LIKELY TO COACH OLYMPIC TEAM

Jacket Trainer Would
Condition United States
Wrestling Team.

By Jimmy Jones.

Mike Chambers, trainer and boxing coach at Georgia Tech, who went to Amsterdam in 1928 as trainer for Uncle Sam's track and field men, is virtually assured of being appointed trainer for the United States wrestling team in the forthcoming Olympics at Los Angeles.

Yesterday Chambers received a wire from Hugo Otopalik, coach of wrestling at the University of Iowa, and coach of the Olympic wrestling team, asking if he would be available to act as trainer for the team. Chambers first ascertained from Tech authorities if he would be permitted to take the job should it be tendered him and upon receiving assurance that he would, answered that he was available.

His chances for the job are considered excellent in view of his past Olympic record and his reputation as a college trainer.

APPOINTMENT SEEN.
It seems a bit remarkable that a coach in the Midwest, which is the cradle of wrestling, should write south for a trainer. But the Iowa State coach became aware of Mike's ability when Chambers was football trainer there.

Official appointment of Chambers to the post is expected to come soon. Four years ago Mike was trainer for the trackmen and grid swimmers that America sent to Europe for the Olympics. The voyage was noteworthy in two respects for Chambers.

One dealt with the restoration of Helen Meany, crack grid diver of the United States, to physical condition that enabled her to win the title. Mike was the man who did this.

A few days after the ship landed with Chambers and his trackmen, Helen Meany was injured doing back cutaway dive from the springboard.

MIKE TO RESCUE.
The American girl received a badly sprained back and incurred scalp laceration when she slipped on the board. Physicians said there was no chance for her to compete in the water events, and America's chances were indeed gloomy.

Some of Mike's friends who had come along to see her compete were deeply disappointed and appealed to Chambers to take over her case.

Mike obtained consent from her physician and took Mike Meany in charge. For four days he devoted all his time to treatment of her injuries, leaving the training of the United States trackmen to the veteran Billy Morris, of Pennsylvania.

Miss Meany recovered and went on to win a great victory for America. Chambers received a great deal of credit for her triumph.

MEETS ALEX.
It also was on this trip that Mike met Coach Alexander, which meeting later brought him to Georgia Tech. Mike blushes a bit even now when he tells of being trainer for the girl swimmers, but Uncle Sam still owes him a debt of gratitude for putting Helen Meany back in the running.

Chambers' heavy duties for the winter and spring will be over soon. He has his boxing tournament to run off in March and spring football work for that month. Then he will be practically at liberty to go ahead with his Olympic work, if he gets the job. His contract calls for services until June but Tech will not stand in his path to such an honor.

Since Mike came to Tech he has become one of the most popular men in the athletic system. His wholesome supply of Irish wit and invincible service to the football team has brought a silver lining to the darkest era Tech ever knew on the gridiron.

Tech Boxers
To Miss Tourney.
Georgia Tech will not enter any of her boxers in the intercollegiate tournament at Charlottesville, Va., this month. The Jackets' previous boxers have not been out long and Mike Chambers doesn't believe they can get in shape by the last of February, when the meet is to be held.

He will, however, enter all of his good fighters in the Southeastern A. A. U. eliminations to be held under the auspices of the 122nd infantry here March 25-26.

These include Elmo Freyer and Jimmy Hearn, welterweights; Quint Adams, lightweight, and several others.

Max Morris, middleweight star, has dropped out of Tech and will not compete. He is going to night school.

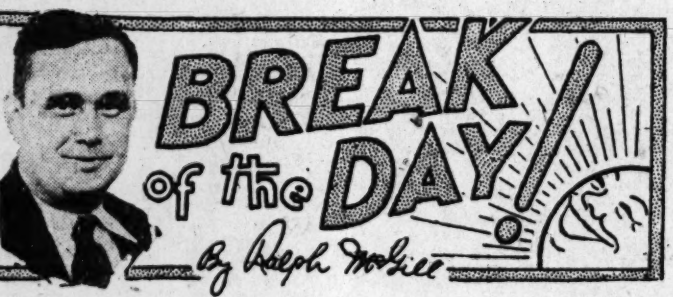

Mike Chambers calls attention to the fact that competition will be keener this year as bouts have been cut to three rounds. Last year an extra round was added when a decision was doubtful.

Tech fighters who make good showings in the A. A. U. bouts very likely will take part in the Olympic try-outs.

With Bobby Jones as a "front man" and with Grantland Rice and Dan Michalove putting on some heat, the Cracker delegation, Roos and Barron, will attempt to get two or three fellows from the Yankees who have more than a passing acquaintance with the game of Americanized rounders.

The delegation is expected in New York today, where Bobby Jones, vice president of the club, is awaiting them. And today and Thursday will find them out at Colonel Jake Ruppert's offices.

The Yankees, of course, have a lot of farms. Fact is, the Yankees are land-rich. But they still have a lot of surplus baseball talent.

And with Bobby Jones as the front man things are likely to happen. Most everybody is eager to do favors for Bobby Jones. And if he talks to Jake Ruppert the colonel is likely to rob the Newark club to give a helping hand to the Crackers.

No purchasing agent ever went out with the appeal that the world's greatest golfer has.

Fact is, Bobby Jones might corner the baseball player market if he offered to swap golf tips for a player. Most of the baseball players and magnates are very bum golfers indeed. Bobby Jones might be able to get a pitcher at any time during the season by offering to give two tips on putting.

At any rate, it will be interesting to watch the efforts of the Cracker executives. It is possible that Bobby Jones may get the Crackers a ball club. Certainly the club never had such a glittering front man as they have in the world's golf champion.

SPER SILENCES BRONX CHEER.

Frank Speer, once a star tackle at Tech and now one of the stars in the rassing ornament, has just been restored to good standing in Pennsylvania. The story of why he was suspended is interesting—and typical.

Speer was wrestling Tiny Roebuck, the big Indian, and giving him a real battle. In the front row of the ringside seats sat a fan who had an intense dislike for Speer. He grew very personal and the Bronx cheer echoed from the rafters every minute or so.

Speer was crafty. He waited until the Indian started a furious blocking attack. The former Jacket reeled around the ring until he was just in front of the fan, who by that time was up on his feet yelling in delight.

The Indian dived, 250 pounds of bone and muscle. Speer ducked. The fan didn't. The big Indian sailed through the ropes and struck the fan right in the lobby, a most sensitive section of the anatomy.

They carried the fan away and the wrestling match went on. The commission seemed to think that Speer must have done it with malice aforethought. But Speer disclaimed it.

It was, of course, an accident.

GOOD OLD MIKE.

It is very gratifying to learn that Mike Chambers, Georgia Tech trainer, has been notified by the Olympic committee that he is one of those considered for training the American teams this year for the meet in Los Angeles.

DOONAN SEES GREAT TOURNEY

Showings of Tech, Georgia To Aid in Putting It Over Big.

Al Doonan, who has seen them all, predicts the most successful basketball tournament in conference history this year—both financially and otherwise.

Early season of Tech and Georgia on the court means that they will be in the running and thereby a big boon to the box office receipts.

Tech showed by great victories over Vandy and Georgia and a close game with Auburn that Roy Mordorff has developed a real local contender," he said. New players have been developed in Katz, Davis and Pool.

Neither Tech nor Georgia have ever won a conference title, but this year both have chances. Kentucky and Maryland look as powerful favorites. Maryland, victor last year, has returned her entire team while the colorful Wildcats have set a swift pace thus far.

Auburn has a veteran quintet. "In the second place you can't beat 50 per cent in prices that's going to pull in the crowd," added Doonan. Only box seats will sell for $2 and season tickets can be bought for $10.

Tickets go on sale at the club in the next few days. The usual number of teams will be invited this year, Doonan announces. There will be no preliminary games and pairings will be drawn a few days before the tourney.

Hardwick Seeks To Kayo Wills

Lou Hardwick, the fast and hard-hitting Atlanta boxer, is putting in many serious training licks for his 10-round bout against Young Harry Wills, New York, at the city auditorium Friday night.

Hardwick is working out daily in the gymnasium on Alabama street, with an eye to winning the fight by a knockout. Both boys pack heavy punches. Wills having won his last five fights by that method.

In the second ten-round bout of the double weekend, Kid LaGula, of Porto Rico and Cuba, will meet Battling McCoy, of Philadelphia. Both are hard hitters.

Action in the eight-round semi-final will be provided by a pair of 200 pounders—Sid Wheeler and Battling Cornell, who will clash in a sock-a-sock can battle.

The semi-final bouts will be added to the card and a battle royal will be the opening feature. Tickets are on sale at Nappie's Newsstand and Poulos' Shoe Shine Parlor.

Troup County Plans Preserve for Quail

LAGRANGE, Ga., Feb. 2.—Troup county will have a quail preserve and the stocking of quail on all farms in the county will be accomplished in the next several years, according to plans of the county commissioners.

The 1,100-acre Wade Freeman farm on the Franklin road has been selected as a breeding ground for a committee composed of A. C. Heywood, representative of the American Game Association; Herbert L. Stoddard and Wallace B. Grange, of the United States Biological survey, and Peter S. Twitty, state game and fish warden. Paul Hammett, chairman of the Baxter L. Schaupp post of the American Legion's game and fish committee, accompanied the visitors on their tour of inspection.

Gators Will Send Strong Five in Game

GAINEVILLE, Fla., Feb. 2.—(AP)—The University of Florida basketball team will resume its schedule tomorrow night at Rolling college. Coach Brady Cowell, for the first time this year, will have a full strength. Several injured players will be back in form, as well as several who have been ineligible.

Neil Describes Thrills Of Bobsled Ride

Associated Press Writer Covers icy Course at Mile-a-Minute Before Germans Crash.

NOTE: Five minutes before the German bobsled team crashed on the treacherous Olympic run, critically injuring two members, Edward J. Neil, Associated Press staff man, covered the course in a mile-a-minute dash with Harry Homberger, American pilot.

By Edward J. Neil.
LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Feb. 2.—(AP)—They took me down the most dangerous mile and a half in the entire sports world today, gave me thrills enough to drive me to the edge of my seat, and then they crashed.

It was 7 o'clock in the morning, deadly cold on the top of Mount Van Hovenberg and the bobsleds of eight nations, men who can't have nerves, laughed and chattered.

At their feet lay the Frankenstein contraptions known as bobsleds, 500 pounds of steel and oak. In the air was a fine mist of snow. We were at the start of the Olympic bobsled, the mile and a half of gliding ice twisting through 25 awesome bends and hairpin curves down the mountain-side, the racing strip that in two days has sent eight Germans to the hospital. Today it all but killed two of them.

They watch the starter with his red flag and suddenly he gets word from a telephone strung along the slide that all is clear.

They say Homberger is the greatest bobsled driver to last a lifetime of the sport. He is the Albie Booth of bobsleds, 158 pounds, but his shoulders are the widest of the crew. His record is 1:52 for one and one-half miles.

SAD FAREWELLS.
Solely the men of other nations who can't hope to equal Homberger's skill shake our heads. They do that before I leave. They say that they never expected to see you again.

Particularly did Fritz Grau, German captain, make it a point to slap our backs. So did Albert Brehme. An hour later they were in a hospital. Grau and Brehme may die before the night is out.

One heavy and suddenly he gets word from a telephone strung along the slide that all is clear.

THREE INJURED IN SLED CRASH

Two May Die as Result of Lake Placid Smashup.

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Feb. 2.—(AP)—Hospital authorities tonight announced that Albert Brehme, 27-year-old brakeman on the German Olympic four-man bobsled team, died as a result of a crash landing on the run today, was in a dangerous condition with a fractured skull and other injuries.

Captain Fritz Grau, pilot of the crew, was "seriously" hurt, hospital authorities said. The 37-year-old Berlin radio manufacturer suffered fracture of the right shoulder, concussion of the brain and lacerations.

Two teammates were less seriously injured and were said to be in no danger. Hellmuth Hopmann, type writer, manufacturer in Braun-schweig, suffered severe leg lacerations, possible internal injuries and lacerations.

Rudolf Krotki, masseur for the team and a substitute today, strained his back.

The accident was the second to the German bobsleds and left only Hans Kilian to pilot the last of the sleds that were considered the most dangerous to American supremacy in the winter Olympics starting Thursday.

Captain Werner Zahn broke his left arm and Dr. Mehlhorn fractured a hand when the first German bobsled crashed Sunday.

The smashup today, most spectacular and serious in the two-year history of the slide, occurred at shady in center field and with a good catch high. Grau apparently lost control going into the curve at a speed estimated at 70 miles an hour. He crashed through the top and was flung with his mates 150 feet into a deep ravine on the side of Mount Hovenberg.

BARROW MEETS BOB THURSDAY TO PLAN DEALS

Conference With Big League Moguls Contemplated by Roos, Red.

Promise of at least six capable Class A ball players from which they will be able to pick the men needed to bolster their team is the main objective of "Red" Barron and "Chick" Roos, now on a swing through the various big league cities.

While one of the principal motives is to contact these clubs for future aid, the two Crackers officials are admittedly on the lookout for material that will help the club immediately.

It is Barron's wish to build his club straight "through the middle" and with this in view, he and Roos will be on the lookout for a first-string catcher to go with Johnny O'Connell and a hard-hitting first baseman.

DINNER THURSDAY.
They hope to line up six players from the various clubs, weigh their abilities and then accept the needed. Barron and Roos plan to meet Bobby Jones at dinner New York Thursday and go over the situation. They also will discuss the Crackers' needs with various big league officials of the city and, if possible, make connections whereby these clubs will help with the players needed.

They also will visit the Phillies' management and that of the Boston Braves, with which the Crackers have had very friendly relations. Through the late George Stallings who recommended Barron for his change, the Braves a few years back, Atlanta has had good standing with that club for some time.

VISIT CHICAGO.
Barron and Roos also plan to visit Chicago. While the Crackers have agreed to meet Bobby Jones at New York Thursday and go over the situation, they also will discuss the Crackers' needs with various big league officials of the city and, if possible, make connections whereby these clubs will help with the players needed.

GEORGE LYLE QUALIFIES FOR COMMISSION RACE

Councilman, in Campaign Statement, Promises Effort To Reduce Taxes.

George B. Lyle, eleventh ward councilman, who Monday qualified as the sixth entrant in the race for the nomination in the March 9 Fulton county democratic primary for one of the two commission posts, Tuesday issued the following statement:

"I am not affiliated in any manner with any political faction or special interest and the success of my campaign for office will be attributable solely to the efforts of my friends and the other citizens of Fulton county who have faith in my honesty of purpose, my conscientious zeal in behalf of the people and my experience, judgment and ability to properly execute and act on the affairs of the county."

"I make no pretense of adopting a definite platform and believe that each issue or matter to come before the county commission should be acted upon, after thorough investigation, according to its respective merits, yet I am profoundly convinced that a means of decreasing taxes can be found, and I pledge myself, without reservation or equivocation, to inaugurate and support measures of economy that will permit the payment of taxes without endangering the safety, health and general welfare of the people of Fulton county."

"I refer to my five years' record as a city councilman and to all I have known me as an Atlanta citizen for the past 25 years, and promise, when elected, to honestly and conscientiously perform the duties of my office for the best interests of all of the people and without fear or hope of reward other than the self-satisfaction of having fulfilled the obligations of my office."

DR. REMBERT G. SMITH TO ASK OPEN HEARING

Dr. Rembert G. Smith, Sparta, Ga., Methodist Episcopal minister, who last October was suspended for one year by the North Georgia conference because of activities alleged detrimental to Methodism, will demand open meetings in his appeal before the committee on appeals in Nashville Thursday.

Dr. Smith, before he left Atlanta Tuesday for Nashville, said that all hearings on appeals by the committee are considered in executive session and all evidence submitted is secret, the policy being formulated "for the protection of the accused."

"I am the accused in this case," Dr. Smith said, "and I do not want the protection this policy entails. I will request that the hearings be open to the press and the public. I may be ruled against, but they cannot say that in my case the ruling is for my protection."

The committee on appeals is composed of the following: Bishop S. R. Hay, chairman; Dr. W. W. Pease, Dr. C. A. Spragons, Dr. W. W. Arnold, Dr. I. P. Martin, E. R. Malone, Dr. C. Roper and M. E. Lawson. The latter three are laymen and lawyers, while the others are clergymen. Dr. W. P. King, of Nashville, will represent Dr. Smith.

COOLIDGE TWICE RECEIVED OATH, JURIST REVEALS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—(AP)—Almost ten years after the incident, a former justice of the District of Columbia supreme court smiled reminiscently today as he told how he administered a second presidential oath of office to Calvin Coolidge.

The traditional Coolidge silence surrounded the ceremony until it was related in a recent book by Harry M. Daugherty, attorney-general in the Harding and Coolidge administrations.

A. A. Hoehling Jr., now a Washington attorney, said today the second oath was administered after the legality of the first had been questioned. It had been taken by implicit in a New England farmhouse early on the August morning after the death of President Harding.

Colonel John Coolidge, the president's father, administered the first oath, watching proudly as his son raised his hand. The elder Coolidge, now dead, was a justice of the peace and the point was made that he had authority to swear in only state officers.

Judge Hoehling said today that in late August, 1925, he was approached by Daugherty, who told him Mr. Coolidge wished to take the oath again. The judge added that the reasons were not discussed, but that he understood it was a precautionary measure.

On the afternoon of August 21, Judge Hoehling received a call to go to the Willard hotel, where President Coolidge had a suite during his term as vice president.

Secret service men admitted the justice to a room where the president was alone. A hotel Bible lay on a table. Without any formalities, the oath was administered, Coolidge smiled and said "Thank you." That was all.

DEPRESSION IS BLAMED ON TOO MUCH 'BIGNESS'

America's Rabbit-like striving for bigness in business and industry has reacted like a monster of Frankenstein, bringing depression and desolation which will last until the brains of America and the world being about a readjustment on a sane, sounder basis.

That picture of economic conditions today was presented to the Atlanta Kiwanis Club at its luncheon in the Ansley hotel Tuesday by Samuel S. Wyer, consulting engineer connected with the Fuel-Power-Transportation Educational Foundation at Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. Wyer was presented on a program arranged by Colonel R. L. Bugg, president of the A. B. & C. railroad. A mutual feature was presented by Mrs. J. Lee Edwards, soprano. The "blow" team led the "red" team in the first report on a new membership attendance contest.

THREE OFFICERS SHOT IN STRIKE DISORDER

BLADENBORO, N. C., Feb. 2.—(AP)—Three officers, guarding the Bladenboro cotton mills after approximately 500 workers struck in protest against a 10 per cent wage cut, were fired on and wounded slightly last night.

Frank Townsend, a deputy sheriff from Elizabethtown, was the most seriously wounded. He was in the mill office and a shotgun was fired through a window, part of the lead striking him in the back and head.

Dan Skipper, of Bladenboro, and John Tatum, a deputy sheriff from Elizabethtown, suffered minor bird shot wounds.

Officials of the mill said the strike was engineered by "a few hot heads" and that the workers were not organized. C. O. Bridges, treasurer, said the mills expected to resume operations soon, possibly tomorrow.

Blinded by the rain as he drove over a grade crossing Tuesday morning, L. L. White, 59, well-known resident of Decatur, was almost instantly killed when his automobile was demolished by a fast south-bound freight train on the Georgia railroad, near Kellan.

According to members of the train crew, Mr. White apparently did not see the approaching train, bound for Augusta, until it struck his car. He was dead when the ambulance reached a doctor's office in Decatur, and the body was taken to the funeral parlors of A. S. Turner.

There's one Right Size for Cigarettes

● Examine various cigarettes, and you'll find they are not all alike in size. Yet our scientists say their tests and research fix one definite size standard as the best. For a given length, our experts say, there is one right diameter... to make the draft right... to make the cigarette burn right.

Not only that, when the size is right, the cigarette lasts longer, and smokes cooler. And that "right" size is exactly the standard Chesterfield size.

A detail? Of course—but a mighty important one, figured in extra coolness and comfort. It's by constant attention to just such details that Chesterfield sets cigarette standards.

Notice how round and full each Chesterfield is—how firmly packed. There are two "electric detectives" on every packing machine, to check this detail also!

The right size... and the right quality. Chesterfield never changes either one. Measure them any way you want—with ruler, microscope, or test-tube.

Or measure them in the surest way of all—by milder and better taste. And you'll find—They Satisfy! Good, they've got to be good!

Mrs. Freeman Is Elected President Of Atlanta Association, B. W. M. U.

At the annual convention of the Baptist Women's Missionary Union of the Atlanta association, held with the First Baptist church of East Point Thursday and Friday, Mrs. L. O. Freeman was elected to the leadership of the organization to succeed Mrs. Wilbur Jones. This is one of the largest association groups of Baptist women in the entire south and more than 1,000 members were in attendance at this meeting.

Mrs. Freeman, the newly-elected president, comes to the position with extensive experience in B. W. M. U. work, having served on the state executive board and as publicity chairman for the Baptist women for a number of years. For the past two years she has been first assistant superintendent and prior to that, district secretary of the Atlanta B. W. M. U. Mrs. Freeman was for three years president of the W. M. S. of the College Park Baptist church, where she holds membership, and is at present teacher of the Business Men's Bible class of that Sunday school. Mrs. Freeman is also well known in club circles, having been president of the fifth district Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs. She is considered one of the best platform speakers and presiding officers among the women of the state.

Mrs. Freeman has for six years held the place of leader for the women of the Atlanta association and is an outstanding executive and inspirational speaker. By her wise guidance and sympathetic understanding she has won an ever-abiding place in the hearts of the women and placed the organization among the foremost in Baptist realms of the south. An event of Thursday's session of the convention was the presentation to Mrs. Jones of an exquisite silver bowl, the gift of the W. M. U. as a token of love and esteem. The presentation was made by Mrs. George Westmoreland, a notable officer of the organization.

Resolution Passed. A notable action of the convention was the unanimous passing of a resolution in disapproval of a national referendum for the repeal of the eighteenth amendment, together with a pledge to pray, work and vote, should voting become necessary, for the support of the amendment.

Feature speakers on the two-day program were Mrs. J. L. Lawrence, wife of the secretary of the home mission board and author of mission study books; Mrs. C. R. McGuire, missionary for a number of years in Africa; Mrs. J. C. Quarles, missionary on furlough from Argentina; Miss Mary Christian, state leader of Baptist young people; Mrs. Wilbur Jones, superintendent of W. M. U. Because of recent illness Mrs. Jones, though present, did not preside over the meeting, this being done by Mrs. L. O. Freeman, assistant superintendent.

An apportionment of $46,593.34 has been paid during the year to the co-operative program of missions. All gifts, including personal gifts, church aid, good-will centers and associated expenses, total $103,218.69. In addition to financial statements encouraging reports were given by officers, district secretaries and all chairmen of departments.

1933 Hottens. The twenty-third annual session of the convention was opened with prayer by Dr. W. A. Duncan, pastor of the hostess church. Greetings were extended by Mrs. A. G. O'Neal and

How Millions LOSE FAT

You know, as all know, that in late years excess fat has been disappearing fast. Look about you. Note how slender figures, youth and vigor have displaced abnormal fat.

The reason lies largely in a discovery made by modern science. A great cause of excess fat has been found in a weakened gland. Food which should create fuel and energy goes to piled-up fat.

Now doctors, the world over, feed that lacking factor. Normal conditions return. Fat melts away and vim comes back. And this without starvation.

Marmola prescription tablets embody this modern method. People have used them for 24 years—millions of boxes of them. The changed conditions of today are largely due to Marmola.

Quit wrong methods of reduction, hard or futile. Do what modern doctors do, and what countless people have done with Marmola. Take these tablets—four a day—until weight comes down to normal and vim returns part.

All druggists supply Marmola—$1 a box. A box in each box gives the formula and explains the amazing results. Get slender now, more youthful, more active. Don't wait longer. Marmola is at your call.

FRIENDLY COUNSEL

BY CAROLINE CHATFIELD

Problems of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Your name held in confidence. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution.

DEAR MISS CHATFIELD:
Two years ago my husband took his brother into our home to live. He has a family, consisting of a wife and several grown children. He was ill and without work and separated from them. He has regained his health and without work and separated from them. He has regained his health and without work and separated from them.

ANSWER:
It is a crystal clear duty: put him out. If your personal comfort were the sole motive there might be some doubt as to whether you should do it. But since he has introduced an element of discord into a home where there are little children, since he not only renders himself a nuisance to you, but saps your time and strength that you need for the conduct of your home, it is your duty to remove him.

There is a big distinction between kindness to a sick and helpless brother and indulgence toward a well and worthless one. You know the distinction and you should make it plain to your husband. One is a duty and the other is not. CAROLINE CHATFIELD.

Norman Butts Lectures to Lithonia Garden Club

LITHONIA, Ga., Feb. 2.—Norman Butts, expert on shrubbery, was guest speaker at the meeting of the Lithonia Garden Club Friday at the clubhouse, and gave a most instructive talk on the subject.

Mr. Butts brought with him a number of specimens of shrubs from the Ashford Park nurseries, and pointed out the distinguishing features and interesting points on each one. Hollies, magnolias, fire thorns, anise, tea shrub and many others were viewed with interest by the 60 members of the club present.

Questions of planting and pruning were discussed in an open forum. Miss Inez Bartley read "La Petite Naive," by George O'Neill, and Mrs. J. R. McConnell read an article on Georgia flower gardens.

A short drill on the pronunciation of flower names completed the program. Mrs. Charles Davidson, president, conducted a short business session. The club plans to plant crepe myrtles on the soon-to-be-completed paved extension to the Atlanta road.

The centerpiece on the table was a gorgeous arrangement of flowers from the garden of Mrs. D. P. Phillips. Purple and lavender larkspur, lilies, white flowers, calla lilies and alstroemeria were the main features.
